This is somewhat inconvenient.

The Govt. of India had already agreed to give Mr. Verrier's services and it is not unlikely that the subordinates will be wanted, as we are more likely to run short of subordinates than of officers.

Messrs Grant and Allum we had not reckoned on.

We have already applied for the services of Messrs Parry and Nixon from the East.

Ask that we may begin review of the six subordinates which we applied for under subordinates!

Coast Railway, but have not received any definite answers yet.

Additional officers have already been posted to Cuddalore and Killore, and the districts most in want of strengthening now are Bellary, Kurnool and North Arcot (for Pongalur).

It has been decided that the railway officers should be employed in ordinary divisions, the men thus set free being employed in famine districts, and to avoid any further delay I propose to recommend the immediate transfer of an officer from Madurai, Tinnevely, and Ceylon No. 1 to the three districts in question, leaving their places temporarily vacant until the railway men join.
