into 25 huts at an approximate cost of Rs. 5500 or at an average rate of Rs 220 per hut. The number of huts required is only 20 and the cost of them approximately amounts to Rs. 4400, which is less than the cost (Rs. 4900) of converting the old Cavalry barracks as estimated by the Executive Engineer. Under the above circumstances, I request that G.O. No. 2189 dated 18 August 1886 J.D. transferring the Cavalry barracks within the Amrit Fort to the Police Department may be cancelled and sanction accorded for the conversion of the late European barracks (blocks A and B) into 20 huts for the use of this Department. On receipt of sanction the necessary plan and estimate will be submitted.
