OFFICE NOTE No. 305 SA

To

W.

A temporary vacancy having occurred in this office, as Accountant 4th. Grade, I request sanction of Government to the officiating appointment being offered at Rs. 80 a month (the minimum salary of the grade), to Mr. George Read, who was formerly an accountant 3rd. grade under the orders of the Government of India.

2. Under my recent proposals for a revision of Accountants Establishment, provision has been made for the promotion of 14 out of 28 Accountants from 5th. to 4th. grade, with effect from 1st. January 1892, and I do not consider that the remainder have any claim to promotion at present.

3. Mr. Read is an exceptionally able accountant; he is well versed in the work of every branch in an Examiner's office, and in Divisional accounts also. He was Superintendent of my office in the Central Provinces, and carried on the current work of that office during my absences on tour to my complete satisfaction.

4. He is now employed in the office of the Accountant General, P.W.D., whose consent to his employment here has been secured in the enclosed telegram to my address; but as Mr. Read is at present on the temporary establishment, he will have to join at his expense.
