GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

General.
Establishment.

Read—the following paper :—

From the Officiating Under-Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department (General), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated Simla, 31st October 1891, No. 2858 G.

I am directed to request that all officers of Royal Engineers serving under the Government of Madras, with the exception of Lieutenant W. C. Smyth, may be called upon to forward, if in their possession, the copy of their record of service furnished to them by the Deputy Adjutant-General, Royal Engineers, Horse Guards, prior to their embarkation for duty in India.

2. These records are required in view to their transmission to the Horse Guards for completion to date, and I am to request that on receipt they may be forwarded to this office as early as practicable.

Order—dated 11th November 1891, No. 3025 W., Public Works.

Communicated to officers concerned for early submission of the document called for, if in their possession, or for report if they do not possess it.
