"Hardly any rain last week. Reports unfavorable from Durnool, Bellary, Anantapur, Cuddapah, North Arcot, Chingleput, Salem, Very sharp rise in price and scarcity rate exceeded in several districts.
Chagstoun reports that there will be severe distress in 4 taluks of Bellary and that relief works must be opened there shortly and estimates that some 40,000 will require work in that district alone. Works will also be required almost immediately in Durnool and Cuddapah and possibly later on in Anantapur, North Arcot Chingleput and Salem. No estimate of numbers requiring work at present possible. Arrangement must however be made at once to strengthen D.P.W., by which agency all works will be carried out. Men not procurable locally. 15 Super estimated that about 10 officers and 50

will eventually by relief works extension given

one will be wanted early next year.
 Please arrange with the Government to supply soon other provinces and ask them to warn the men selected to be in readiness to start at short notice.
 Additional Civil officers for supervision of gratuitous relief work can be obtained by relieving some Divisional officers and substituting Deputy Collectors.
 Also Salt and Police Departments also can be indented on. No officers likely to be required from other Provinces at present.

FOR ORDERS.

It seems to be impossible to answer definitely at present, but as far as I can make out it will not be necessary to ask for more than 6 officers and 20 subordinates including those mentioned in telegram 179.

This number will I think be required before the 15th February. I would make the answer proposed with a reservation that we will satisfactorily at the end of this month. An answer in this sense might be sent.
