No. 1573

Forwarded to the Public Works Department with a request to be informed if arrangements cannot be made for the relief of Major Rawson so as to admit of his proceeding to Chatham with the least possible delay as required by the Assistant General in India.

By J.H.C. Hope Propul.
Secretary to Govt., Milly. Deptt.

Returned as requested, with the remark that there is nothing to prevent Major Rawson's leaving directly definite orders are received as to the steamer by which he is to travel.

He has already been informed that he can hand over charge of his Division to Mr. Hancock without waiting for Major Smart's arrival.
