The posting of the

be under His consideration for orders as to the posting of the upper subordinates -

Two subordinates
are still required in Kurnool, & these will probably go from the II Circle, as soon as reply comes from the S.D.

Three men are required for Bellary, & it is possible more may be asked for. The S.D. II Circle has not yet reported exact requirements.

Three of the Bengal men might perhaps be posted to Bellary, leaving it to the S.D. to post himself men to jungle
work, & to utilise the Bengal men on ordinary work.

The posting of

A paper has just been received requesting that the posting of Mr. C. P.
Sundaram Pillai from Perris to Bellary may be postponed for the present - Four of the Bengal men may therefore be sent to Bellary.

The other two may be required for the Pungam Zamindari
with one division.

25.2.92

Requirements of Bellary
have been now met for the present -

The 2 men asked for
from the S.D. might go to Kurnool, and 4 of the Bengal men to Bellary.

Posting of the remaining Bengal men can be deferred

Approved as regards the

But some decided that the Royal were want as far as possible
excepted in ruling divisions on new King not to the same district -

Mr. F. W. L. was for B
Trinidad and Antigua
Jull. Clewley B Madras in place of James Wood and Smith -

He cannot find a place for the other two without giving trouble -

One further question may be

1 - James Wood to Bellingham
- Smith to Antigua
- James to Bellingham
- Clewley to Antigua 1 - King (the transfer of King in No. 1) - Smith to be, for empty seat in Parliament -
