SIR,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that the Executive Engineer Vizagapatam Division reports that the Superintendent of Police, Vizagapatam District, has requested him to get the Solitary Cells, at the back of the new revenue lines at Vizagapatam, demolished as they are no longer required.

2. The Executive Engineer states that the above building is probably one of the buildings transferred to the Police Department in G.O. No. 2750 dt. dated the 5th November 1884. All the buildings transferred to the Police Department in the above G.O. are, since the receipt of the G.O., shown in the registers of this Department under Provincial buildings.

3. The Engineer further states that the building in question is very much out of repair, & even if the building was required, it is not worth repairing.

4. The name of the building is not known.

5. I request that, under the circumstances above stated, you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government to the building referred to above being demolished.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient^t

J. W. Williams.
Sup^r Engineer 1st Circle.
