" Accountant-General.
" District Magistrate, North Arcot.

From T. W. RAWLINS, Esq., Accountant-General, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 8th February 1893, No. 366.

With reference to your memorandum, No. 160, dated the 25th of January 1893, I have the honour to state that under Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, No. 263, dated 14th February 1881, sanctioned in G.O., No. 488, dated 19th March 1881, Revenue Department, Collectors may sanction new works entered in the sanctioned list of civil works to be executed up to Rs. 1,000 and repairs similarly entered up to Rs. 2,000.

2. This provision is understood to be vested in Collectors only as regards the erection and repair of buildings, the cost of which is provided in the Land Revenue budget, and not in their capacity of District Magistrates as regards magisterial buildings for which no provision is made in the budget.

3. Paragraph 1310 of the Madras Public Works Code, however, provides for the local head of any department not specifically mentioned therein sanctioning expenditure for new works, additions or repairs up to the limit of Rs. 50, and there would be no objection to District Magistrates exercising such power if due provision for the work has been made in the budget.

No. 1086-C.

MEMORANDUM.

Read—memorandum from the Financial Department, No. 366, dated 24th February 1893.

There seems no objection, under paragraph 64, chapter IX of the Government of India Code, to vesting District Magistrates with the powers of sanction already possessed by Collectors—vide paragraph 1310 of the Madras Public Works Department Code. It will be seen that under the last-mentioned paragraph the powers of Collectors are limited to Rs. 500 for "new works, additions or repairs" and not Rs. 1,000 and Rs. 2,000 respectively as mentioned by the Accountant-General in paragraph 1 of his letter No. 366, dated 8th February 1893.

MADRAS,
8th March 1893.

(Signed) G. T. WALCH,
Ag. Secy. to Govt., P.W.D.

To the Financial Department, with papers returned.

ORDER—dated 28th March 1893, No. 330, Financial.

The power to sanction expenditure for new works, additions or repairs within a limit of Rs 500, already possessed by Collectors, will be extended to District Magistrates as regards buildings under their charge.
