My dear Mr. Walsh,

I wrote the other day to the India office about an extension of leave beyond April 19, when my leave expires. They wrote back that I must appear before a Medical Board & that if the Board considered me fit for duty then I must produce evidence that I was not required by the Government, before an extension of leave could be granted. I don't know what kind of evidence they want so I write to you. The Board may or may not consider me fit for duty - I can't tell. but I am sure myself that another 6 or 8 months in England would be much the best thing for me. I have plenty of furlough due & had it not been for the famine there would have been no difficulty about giving me 18 or 20 months furlough to start with. I shall be much obliged if you will send me some "evidence".

You are in the cold weather now & I hope enjoying it.
It has just begun to freeze hard here & there is $\frac{1}{2}$ " of ice on the ponds & a probability of more. It's a nuisance, because of the hunting, which I have been enjoying enormously hitherto. Now the horses can't even get ordinary exercise & will be a torment & a terror when the frost does break.

Please give my best regards to Mrs. Welch & believe me Yours very sincerely

Atmackenzie
