28TH MARCH 1893, No. 655, JUDICIAL.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From Surgeon-Major-General W. F. DEFABECK, M.D., Surgeon-General with the Government of Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 6th February 1893, No. 136.

With reference to G.O., No. 202, Judicial, of the 26th January 1893, I have the honour to state that a native Assistant Surgeon has been posted to Anantapur and will be kept there until the District Surgeon's house is completed.

2. It is presumed that G.O., No. 2137, Judicial, dated 18th November 1892, sanctioning the temporary transfer of the Assistant Surgeon's quarters to the Police Department should be considered as cancelled, and that these quarters can be occupied by the Assistant Surgeon as soon as they become available.

From Colonel C. A. PORTEOUS, Inspector-General of Police, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 16th March 1893, No. 1426.

With reference to memorandum, No. 303 (Judicial), dated 14th February 1893, I have the honour to forward copy of a report from the Superintendent of Police, Anantapur, regarding the accommodation in the taluk cutcherry which he has temporarily obtained for his office.

2. From a personal inspection of the premises, I am able to state that there is not sufficient accommodation for clerks, records, stores and school. There is absolutely no privacy and the arrangement is in every way a most inconvenient one, to which the Superintendent was obliged to resort, no other accommodation being available.

Even with temporary additions, very little improvement can be effected and the arrangement appears to me altogether so very unsatisfactory that it is most desirable to find other accommodation for the Superintendent's office.

ENCLOSURE.

From M. C. WORSOP, Esq., Superintendent of Police, Anantapur, to the Assistant Inspector-General of Police, dated Anantapur, 6th March 1893, No. 174.

With reference to your endorsement, No. 896, dated 17th ultimo, on memorandum, No. 303, dated 14th February 1893, from the Government, I have the honour to inform you that it all depends on the Collector and District Magistrate of Anantapur whether we can continue to hold the rooms in the taluk cutcherry. Before we occupied a portion of this building (a plan of which is enclosed for reference), the big hall D was occupied by a few gumastahs of the Tahsildar's room, who moved into it recently on the Tahsildar losing his magisterial powers. Previous to that they sat in the same room as the Tahsildar. Room A was occupied by a blacksmith employed to stamp weights and measures, the proper occupant being the Salt Inspector, who had taken the Deputy Collector's office. Room E was occupied by a clerk of the Taluk Board who had, only a few weeks previously, removed from the Collector's cutcherry, and room B was being used for keeping printed forms although there was ample space for them in the large room used as the record room. On my explaining the whole of this in person to Mr. Mounsey, then Acting Collector, he had the big hall and three rooms vacated and handed over to us. This accommodation is only sufficient for my office and there is no room for the Superintendent. The armourer has no place for doing his work. Mr. Underwood, the Collector, thinks that the taluk officials are over-crowded and talks of turning us out. There is no building, either public or private, available as a District Police office.

ORDER—dated 28th March 1893, No. 655, Judicial.

In the circumstances stated, the present arrangement of keeping a native Assistant Surgeon at Anantapur will be continued until permanent arrangements can be made for the location of the Police Superintendent's office. Till that time, the Assistant Surgeon's quarters, which it is presumed, will shortly become available, will be utilized as the Police head-quarter office.

2. The revised plans and estimates called for in G.O., dated 6th September 1892, No. 1637, should be submitted to Government at an early date.
