Despatch to the Secretary of State, No. 29 P. W., dated 14th April 1890.
Despatch from " " 28 P. W. " 13th June 1890.
Public Works Department Resolution No. 36 A.—E., dated 9th February 1893.

Observations.—The rule in Public Works Department Code, Volume I, Chapter I, para. 20, under which two special increments of Rs. 50 each are admissible, under certain conditions, to Accountants, 1st grade, was introduced in 1884 because, as it was not usual then to promote Accountants to the Superior Establishment of the Accounts Branch, it was considered advisable to give deserving men some increase of pay for exceptionally good service within their own sphere of duty. Since then, however, on the recommendation of the Public Service Commission, the Superior Establishment of the Accounts Branch has to some extent been recruited by appointments from the Subordinate Establishment, and in para. 1, clause II, of Resolution No. 36 A.—E., dated 9th February 1893, provision is made for the regular recruitment of a certain proportion of the appointments in the Superior Establishment from that source.

2. Appointments of Accountants to the Superior Establishment are, however, necessarily made to the 2nd class of Deputy Examiner, or to a lower rank, and as they are generally made from Accountants in the 1st grade, a difficulty has been experienced in making such appointments in the case of Accountants who, by reason of having been granted special increments, were drawing pay in excess of that fixed for Deputy Examiners, 2nd grade, which was then Rs. 450 per mensem. In order that the appointments should cause no reduction in pay, it was proposed to the Secretary of State in Despatch No. 29 P. W., dated 14th April 1890, that in such cases the Accountants should be permitted to continue to draw the special increments as a personal allowance. But in consideration of the grounds on which the special increments were originally sanctioned, it was proposed that this concession should be restricted to appointments made during the three succeeding years, after which it should be notified that every Accountant accepting special increments must be prepared to resign them if he is offered, and accepts promotion to the rank of Deputy Examiner. These proposals were duly accepted by the Secretary of State and the concession referred to having been in operation for three years must now be withdrawn.

Resolution.—The Government of India are accordingly pleased to rule that the special increments provided for in Public Works Department Code, Volume I, Chapter I, para. 20, shall be granted to an Accountant, 1st grade, only upon the conditions laid down therein and upon the further condition that he will resign them if he is offered and accepts permanent appointment in the rank of Deputy Examiner.
