GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

General.
Establishment.

READ—the following paper:—

From Mr. G. T. Walch, dated 24th April 1893.

ORDER—dated 8th May 1893, No. 1259 W., Public Works.

Mr. Walch will be furnished with a copy of the "History of Services" asked for.

Government takes this opportunity of recording its appreciation of Mr. Walch's services. In March 1866 Mr. Walch joined the Department of Public Works as an Assistant Engineer, second grade. Since then and up to March 1887 he was in executive charge of some of the most important irrigation projects in the Presidency. He was promoted to Superintending Engineer on the 24th March 1887, having worked up through the intermediate grades. In October 1888 he was specially selected for the post of Chief Engineer for Irrigation and Joint Secretary to Government and was subsequently appointed Chief Engineer and Secretary, which posts he held until his retirement under the 55 years' rule on 22nd April 1893. Both in his executive and administrative capacity he has given every satisfaction and by his retirement Government loses the services of an experienced, able and zealous officer.
