It does not appear from reading the Rules that it is intended that an index
map for a whole district must be prepared - It seems to be the intention to show new works on any sized maps provided the scale is not below the minimum allowed by the Rules -

Good, apparently these Index maps,
when otherwise correct, may be

survey or otherwise.

viz 1" = 1 mile with note 1 to para

I read the rules in the same way. There is no necessity for a complete map for each district.
In fact it is allowable to send up ^{a separate} maps for each work, if thought desirable.

Notes

The accompanying & index maps show the main lines of roads constructed in 1892 for the following Talugs in the Godavari District:

- (A) Ramachendrapur Talug.
- (B) Kurnool (2 maps) - do -
- (C) Chinavaram - do -
- (D) Eluru - do -
- (E) Turin - do -
- (F) Amalapur (2 maps) - do -

Maps (A), (B) & (C) are traced on a scale of 1 inch = 1 mile & are in order, the alignment of the roads completed & portions under construction are marked on the tracings also the crossings of streams, canals & village sites etc. but no note is made on the tracings as to whether the alignment is derived from a survey or otherwise.

The roads proposed & those under construction need not be shown on the maps vide Art. 5, para 4 of the Code, if completed works are required to be shown.

Map (A) is traced on a scale of 1 inch = 4 miles which is much smaller than the required scale viz 1" = 1 mile vide Art. 5, para 4.

1893

para 44 Chap IX of the Code. The roads marked are only those in progress hence this map need not be sent to the survey office.

Map (4) is traced on a smaller scale viz 1" = 4 miles & the roads shown are only those proposed & under construction. This map also need not be sent to the survey office.

Map (5) Two separate tracings are submitted for this taluk, one on a scale of 1" = 1 mile which shows the road proposed. This map will not be required. The other map is traced on a smaller scale viz 4 miles = 1 inch & with no reference to the alignment being fixed from actual survey.

As the tracings are in pairs sent, they may be returned to the Local & Municipal Dept for a complete index map of the Dist. prepared in accordance with para 44 Chap IX of the Code.
