Civil Works.

READ—the following paper:—

From Colonel C. A. PORTEOUS, Inspector-General of Police, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 17th April 1893, No. 2092.

I have the honour to request sanction for the transfer to the Police Department of the following public buildings at Mangalore, South Canara district, vacant in consequence of the withdrawal of the military force from that station, and also of as many of the sepoys' huts as will accommodate all the police in Mangalore. I propose the removal of the police office from the present place to the barracks.

- (1) Barracks or place of arms.
- (2) Sergeant's quarters or regimental school and store rooms.
- (3) Armourer's shop and guard room.
- (4) Recruits' block and latrines.
- (5) Magazine.

2. The Superintendent reports that the barracks or place of arms can be used with certain alterations and additions as the police office.

The sergeant's quarters or regimental school and store rooms will form suitable quarters for the Reserve Inspector, who has no public quarters at present.

The military magazine, which is close to the barracks, would be a safe and convenient place for the storage of police ammunition which is now kept in the municipal magazine, $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles from the office, and for which the municipality charges 6 pies per mensem for every pound of powder; in it the ammunition belonging to the Salt Department and merchants' stock ammunition is also kept.

The present Town Police station of Mangalore, which is now located in a small building, will be transferred to the present police office building, in case the latter office is removed to the barracks.
