Copy of a communication from the Inspector General of jails to the Consulting Architect to Government, No. 2183 dated 15th May 1893.

I deferred my answer to your letter No. 8107 of 18th January 1893, pending receipt of order of Govt. in the proposals for improvements to the existing Penitentiary.

2. As in G. O. Public Works, 15th April 1893 No. 1023 the Government has sanctioned the outlay of nearly 50,000 Rs on the present jail, I think that the project of building a new jail may be regarded as abandoned.
