PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT

Read the following papers—

From the Director of Public Instruction,
Madras, of 11th April 1893, No. 3801.

Endorsement of the Public Works Department of 8th May 1893, No. 119 D.

Order of 30th May 1893, No. 361.

The Madras Literary Society will accordingly be informed that the rooms now occupied by it in the Old College are required by Government but that accommodation for the Society's library will be made available in the Courtemaine Public Library on condition that the use of the books is allowed to read in the library itself and also on the understanding that this arrangement may be cancelled at any time by Government. In other respects the Society will be free to manage its library and issue books to subscribers as it sees fit. One of the two small reading rooms at the end of the Library building will be set apart for the use of the Society and provision will be made for keeping the Society's books separate from the general library.

Subject to the condition mentioned above.
