Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), dated 20th April 1893, Mis. No. 2471.

Read—the following Government Order, dated 26th January 1893, No. 50, Educational:—

Read—Petition from M. Balasubramania Pillai, Assistant Shroff, Huzur Treasury, Madura, dated 30th November 1892, appealing against the orders of the Board of Revenue (Land Revenue), dated 25th June 1892, Mis. No. 3970, refusing to exempt him from the examination rules, so that he might be confirmed in the appointment of Deputy Shroff of Madura, in which he had been acting while the permanent man went on leave and who subsequently resigned.

Order—dated 26th January 1893, No. 50, Educational.

The Board appears to be under a misapprehension. M. Balasubramania Pillai was appointed to be assistant shroff on Rs. 15 before the issue of Government Order, dated 10th November 1891, No. 860, Educational, by which, for the first time, the ordinary examination rules were declared to be applicable to the post of shroff. His appointment was therefore regular and as the Public service notification has no retrospective effect, there is nothing to hinder his promotion in the ordinary course. The Collector can therefore appoint Balasubramania Pillai to be deputy shroff if he sees fit; no order of exemption is necessary.

" Petitioner, through the Collector.

Resolution—dated 20th April 1893, Mis. No. 2471.

While communicating the Government Order read above to the Collector, the Board begs to invite the attention of Government to the fact that the examination rules were extended to shroff's appointment by Government Order, dated 25th June 1891, No. 485, Educational, which omitted for the first time the existing exception in favour of shroffs. In Government Order, dated 10th November 1891, No. 860, the Government stated that the Board's surmise in paragraph 2 of its Proceedings, disposed of therein to the above effect, was correct, and it follows, therefore, that the examination rules applied to shroffs from the date of the original notification and not from that of the order which merely accepted an interpretation thereof by the Board. In accordance with this view, the Government sanctioned exemptions in the cases dealt with in Government Orders, dated 10th November 1891, No. 860, and 27th May 1892, No. 407.

2. This does not, however, affect the present case, as Balasubramania Pillai appears to have been appointed assistant shroff before June 1891. But in Government Order, dated 14th April 1892, No. 321, the same shroff was exempted from the examination rules in view to his being promoted. The view taken by the Board, to which Government now takes exception, is in accordance with that order.

3. It is presumed that the present ruling, that an unpassed person after once entering Government service is not debarred from promotion, is made with reference to shroffs alone on the ground that Government Order, dated 28th July 1886, No. 482, Educational, which limits the promotion of unpassed men to posts carrying a salary of Rs. 15, was declared inapplicable to shroffs (Government Order, dated 10th December 1887, No. 680, Educational). A shroff is an expert in his way and cannot be picked up at random like the ordinary gumastah.

4. The Board takes this occasion to point out that the meaning of paragraph 2 of Government Order, dated 28th July 1886, No. 482, Educational, is not clear. It is stated that unpassed men then in Government service are not to have their present appointments affected, but that they are ineligible for promotion to posts carrying a salary of Rs. 15 per mensem till they have passed the tests prescribed for those appointments. But if they did not hold Rs. 15 appointments, the new rule then laid down could not affect their existing positions; if they did, there was no occasion for their promotion to such posts. Apparently it was intended to restrict promotions to posts carrying salary over Rs. 15, but not exceeding Rs. 20 in the case of unpassed officers who then held permanent posts of Rs. 15.

Copy to all other Collectors.

ORDER—dated 22nd May 1893, No. 345, Educational.

The statements contained in paragraphs 1 and 2 of the Board's Resolution are correct. The Government, however, considers it advisable that the application of the examination rules to shroffs should be held to date from the communication of G.O., dated 10th November 1891, No. 860, Educational, to Collectors, as previous to that date it was probably not understood generally that the concession granted to this class of servants had been withdrawn.

2. As the Board observes, the wording of paragraph 2 of G.O., dated 28th July 1886, No. 482, Educational, is obscure. The intention was, however, to debar from any promotion all unpassed men who, on the 1st July 1887, held posts carrying a salary of Rs. 15 and upwards, but below Rs. 20. This rule is still in force, not being affected by G.O., dated 5th April 1893, No. 224, Educational, which refers only to the examination rules issued with G.O., dated 25th June 1891, No. 483, and G.O., dated 25th June 1891, No. 485, Educational.
