C. H. J. Norfor Engineer

Executive Engineer Post

The Secretary to Government
P. W. D.

Through

The Chief Engineer for Irrigation

Sir,

Some years ago, i.e. about the end of 1879 or beginning of 1880, I applied for a famine reward for work done during 1876-77 + 77-78.

2. The nature of reward was a pecuniary one and which was granted to others, such as being allowed leave for 6 months on full pay &c.

3. On receipt of my application the Chief Engineer wrote and told me that, if I could produce — medical medical evidence that my illness, which necessitated my proceeding to England on medical certificate, was due to my exertions during the Famine, it would very much strengthen my case. I accordingly produced the evidence, and, the Government, without assigning any reason, said that, after full consideration, it regretted it was unable to recommend me for the reward.

4. I find by Section 1, 4, 3, Part IV. Chapter ~~IV~~ of the Civil Service Regulations that one year's pensionable service is added to the service of any deserving officer employed during the Famine of 1877-78, so long as he received no extra allowance.

5. I received no extra allowance nor did my total salary then exceed Rs 600 a month, and in my letter to Government I mentioned the the names of ^{two} ~~the~~ officers under whom I served during the Famine for reference. 2/164

6. The Government order, I have reason to believe, was passed without any reference whatever to these officers, and, such being the case, it was not, I venture to state, in a position to judge whether I was entitled to the reward, ~~or not~~.

7. Under the circumstances I beg that Government will be pleased to refer to these officers, more especially to Mr W. B. Longgott under whom I served in the Bellary District, when I fell ill in 1877. My service under Mr Rundell was for a short period in ¹⁸⁷⁸⁻⁷⁹ 1888-89 in the same District on my return from leave and when the Famine was almost over but he gave me a good character which I have unfortunately lost.

8. As I am now nearing the R 20 9-1-93
end of my career in the Public Works Department I trust the file on my case will be again looked into and that a year's pensionable service be granted me.

9. Both Mr Leggatt and Mr Kinnardall are retired officers & drawing their pensions in England and their addresses would & therefore be known to the India office, if required by the Government.

I have the honor to be

Sir

Your most obedt servant
