SIMLA,
14th June 1893.

(Signed) G. H. D. WALKER,
Under Secretary.

Circular memo from the Government of India, Military Department, dated 18th March 1893, No. 897-A.

With reference to article 702 (b), Army Regulations, India, Vol. I, Part I, and with a view to remove any misapprehension on the subject, it is explained that non-continuous-service Royal Engineer officers of the Imperial list, who were posted to the Indian establishment after the 11th March 1886 and who are employed in a civil department, retain a lien on any appointment they may be holding on their proceeding on furlough or on leave in or out of India; but they are entitled, as at present, only to the rate of pay admissible to other officers subject to the leave rules applicable to officers of the British Army serving in India.

2. The applications for furlough or leave of the officers in question should be forwarded, through the heads of their departments, to the Government of India in the Military Department or to the Governments of Madras or Bombay according to whether the officer is borne on the establishment of the Bengal, Madras, or Bombay Presidency.

To the Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Public Works Department.
