Government of Madras.

MILITARY DEPARTMENT,

Ootacamund, the

1st July

1893.

From the Quarter Master General No 901 M. H., dated 8th May/93.

In acknowledging receipt of P. M. G. No 2861 of the 1st Instant, I have the honor to solicit information as to whether the see P. G. No 2844 dated 1st May/93. Minor Works Grant (Rs 6,000) allotted in the Imperial Budget Estimate of Military Works of the Government of Madras for the year 1893/94 can be utilised in the provision of a covered way between the British Infantry Barracks and the Recreation room, and an Armourer's Shop for the Native Infantry at Port Blair, at an approximate cost of Rupees 3501.

2. From Government of India letter embodied in P. M. G. No 356 of 19th January last, it was understood that the minor Works Grants placed at the disposal of local Government and Administrations are intended for the execution of minor Works under their control, whereas the Madras Government in the Public Works Department has apparently no control over such works at Port Blair.

To the Government of India, Milly. Department, No 3721, dated 8th June 1893.

From the Government of India, Milly. Department, No 19444 dated 22nd June 1893. M. H.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No 3721, dated 8th June 1893, enquiring whether it will not be possible to make a special allotment for the works at Port Blair, noted in the margin

from some other source than the grant for military minor works at the disposal of the Government

1. A covered way between the B.S.
barracks & the recreation room — Rs 20
2. An Armourer's shop for the Native Infantry. — 13.
Rs 33

of Madras, which has already been placed at the disposal of the Commander-in-Chief of the Madras
Army for appropriation throughout the Madras Presidency.

In reply, I am to state, for the information of His Excellency the Governor in Council, that if His Excellency the Commander-in-Chief of the Madras Army considers the works in question of sufficient importance to make an allotment for them from the grant of Rs 6000 placed at his disposal, the sum required for

175
for the works in question will be transferred to the Superintendent, Port Blair, from the grant for minor works at the disposal of the Government of Madras.

Order. The reply of the Government of India, communicated to the Provisional Commander-in-Chief.
