READ—the following paper:—

From the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department (Civil Works—Buildings), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, dated Simla, 23rd June 1893, No. 176 B.

With reference to Madras Government Proceedings No. 3158 W., dated the 17th November 1892, regarding the construction of a railway church at Perambur station on the Madras Railway, I am directed to communicate the following remarks.

2. It is observed that of the total estimated cost (Rs. 11,384) of the church, the Government grant-in-aid has been fixed at Rs. 7,000, while the contribution by the Madras Railway Company is stated to be only Rs. 1,500. The Government grant of Rs. 7,000 appears, however, to have been sanctioned under a misapprehension of the intention of rule XI D. of Appendix M. IV of volume I of the 6th edition of the Public Works Department Code. Under that rule no grant-in-aid from the State for this church is admissible. The intention of rule XI D. above referred to is that, if the Directors of a Railway Company are willing to provide church accommodation for its servants, the number of sittings and the amount of the grant from Railway funds, &c., must be fixed in accordance with the rules in Appendix M. quoted above relating to the construction of churches by the State. It is observed from the entry at page XXVI of Madras Government Buildings and Roads Proceedings (Miscellaneous and Matters of Routine) that the Government grant of Rs. 7,000 has been withdrawn for 1892-93 under order No. 420 W., dated 17th February 1893, and though, if the grant had been actually made, the Government of India would not have desired to interfere with the action of the Madras Government in the matter, I am to say that, under present circumstances, the Government of India are of opinion that the grant should not be renewed. I am to add that, in order to prevent any future misunderstanding, the wording of the rule in question, at present somewhat obscure, is being altered and a standing order embodying the alteration will shortly issue.

ORDER—dated 14th July 1893, No. 1842 W., Public Works.

Under the circumstances pointed out by the Government of India and seeing that no action has yet been taken on the grant made in G.O., No. 1671 W., dated 26th June 1893, these orders are cancelled and the grant of Rs. 7,000 is withdrawn and credited to the Provincial reserve.

To
The Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department

Simla, the 23rd June 1893.

Sir,

With reference to Madras Government Proceedings N^o 3158 W, dated the 17th November 1892, regarding the construction of a railway church at Perambur station on the Madras Railway, I am directed to communicate the following remarks:
2. It is observed that of the total estimated cost, Rs. 11,384/-, of the church, the Government grant in-aid has been fixed at Rs. 7,000/- while the contribution by the Madras

Madras Railway Company is stated to be only Rs. 1,500/- The Government grant of Rs. 7,000/- appears, however, to have been sanctioned under a misapprehension of the intention of rule XI D of Appendix II. IV of Volume I. of the 6th edition of the Public Works Department Code. Under that rule no grant-in-aid from the State for this Church is admissible. The intention of rule XI D above referred to is that if the Directors of a Railway Company are willing to provide Church accommodation for its servants, the number of sittings and the amount of the grant from Railway funds, &c., must be fixed in accordance with the rules in Appendix II. quoted above relating to the construction of of Churches by the State. It is observed from the entry at page XXXVI of Madras Government Buildings and Roads proceedings (miscellaneous and matters of routine) that the Government grant of Rs. 7,000 has been withdrawn for 1892-93 under order N^o 420 W, dated 17th February 1893, and though, if the grant had been actually made, the Government of India would not have desired to interfere with the action of the Madras Government in the matter, I am to say that, under present circumstances, the Government of India are of opinion that the grant should not be renewed. I am to add that, in order to prevent any future misunderstanding the wording of the rule in question, at present somewhat obscure, obscure, is being altered, and a standing order embodying the alteration will shortly issue and

Sir,
I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of

M.E.

of your letter No 176 B of 23 June 1893 and in reply to state that the Govt grant in aid of Rs 7,000 towards the Railway church at Perambur was as supposed by the Govt of India, made under a misapprehension of the intention of rule XI D, Section IV, Appendix M P. W. Code. As read by this Govt, it was understood that the rule authorised Govt: grants in aid for church accommodation for persons in the employ of Guaranteed Railway Companies in the same manner as grants are made for State Railway churches, and that any contribution made by the Directors of the Company should be taken as a portion of the private Subscription referred to in rule XI. It is now seen that the grant made by the Directors of the Company should take the

the place of the Govt.
grant made in other cases.
2. With reference to the penultimate sentence of your letter, I am to state that the Govt. grant of Rs 7,000 in this case was reallocated for 1893-94 before the receipt of your letter and I am to enquire whether the Government of India desires that it should now be withdrawn.
