No. 4.

Ettapuram Estate Manager's Office
5th November 1892

1/93

From Mr. V. Venkatrayar a/c
Dy Collector & Manager
Ettapuram Estate.

To The Executive Engineer
Tinnevely District.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that I shall feel much obliged if you can kindly recommend a competent Draftsman on Rs 10 a month, for four months.

I have &c
Signed, V. Venkatrayar
Dy Collector & Manager

Executive Engineer

V/193

From G. W. Faulkner Esquire, Executive Engineer, Tinnevely Dy, to the Supg. Engineer, D. Birch, Es: 3939 dated 22 November 1892.

Enclosure: 1.

I have the honor to forward for favour of orders copy of a letter from the Deputy Collector and Manager Ettiapuram Estate and to state that the store keeper of this division is willing to take up the appointment there in referred to as he hears that it will probably last for a longer period than is stated in the Dy. Collector's letter and may be recommended for it if he can be allowed to have a lien on his substantive appointment.

2. His case is represented to me to be one for consideration in as much as he has not been able to get a draftsman's post on a higher pay than which he is drawing as storekeeper, although he has passed for a 1st class draftsman as far back as August 1886 and in February last he was appointed temporary draftsman in this office on Rs 40 per month but was reverted to his substantive appointment on receipt of Rs 40
No.

No. 1709.W. d/ 8 June 92 prohibiting deputation of members of the permanent establishment on temporary extra work at higher pay in the same office.

No. 770.W.

Copy forwarded, together with the enclosure, to the Chief Engineer D.O.M. for orders.

2. It would appear that the Eltinge pura Estate is under the management of the Court of Wards, and in a subsequent letter No. 3214 d/ 20 November 92 to the address of the Executive Engineer, the Manager of the Estate, in requesting a reply to his former letter sent herewith, states that "the Court of Wards have since sanctioned the entertainment of the draftsman permanently on Rs 35 per mensem."

3. The present pay of Rungaswamy Pillai as storekeeper of the D.O. office being only Rs 25, he will get an increase of Rs 10 if he is allowed to take up the appointment of draftsman in the Estate, but the undersigned requests to be informed whether the storekeeper can be allowed to have a lien on his substantive appointment.

^{2/193}
rules for Foreign Service in Chapter XXV of the Civil Service Regulations, and also whether these rules are applicable to cases of the kind in question.

4. Rungaswamy Pillai was retired from the post of draftsman in the reorganization of the Department in 1878-79 on Compensation for service, and reentered the service on March 1880 as storekeeper, and as he counts now a service of 12 years and 8 months in the department.

OFFICE NOTE No. 1899.C

To

W.

The storekeeper cannot be granted leave without pay to take up the appointment in question and retain a lien on his appointment in this Department without sanction of the Government of India (P.W.Code, chapter IV, para 13). He can however be transferred by Government under the Foreign Service Rules Civil Service Regulations chapter XXXV.

(1) If the appointment is one which is strictly connected with the management or control by Government he will come under foreign service of the second kind and the estate will have to bear cost of his leave and pension allowances, Civil Service Regulations article 818 et seq.

(2) If however the appointment is one which exists apart from the management and control by Government he can only be transferred under conditions applicable to foreign service of the first kind, in which case he will have to pay his pensionary contributions himself Civil Service Regulations article 806 et seq.

No 5196 of 7 December 1892
