GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper:—

G.O. dated 18th May 1892, No. 30, Legislative.

ABSTRACT.—Circulating to the departments of the Secretariat and to certain officers copies of the List of Notifications, Rules and Orders having the force of law in this Presidency corrected up to 31st December 1891, and inviting attention to the Chief Secretary's Office-note No. 3, Legislative, dated 26th January 1892.

ORDER—dated 15th June 1893, No. 62, Legislative.

The First Supplement (containing the Notifications, Rules and Orders having the force of law in this Presidency which were issued during the year 1892) will be circulated to the addressees noted in the list attached in continuation of the List circulated with G.O. dated 18th May 1892, No. 30, Legislative.

2. The attention of all departments of the Secretariat will again be invited to the Chief Secretary's Office-note No. 3 (Legislative), dated 26th January 1892, the system laid down in which must be strictly followed. Early in January 1894 the statements containing the Notifications, Rules and Orders issued during 1893 in the various departments of the Madras Secretariat and in the corresponding departments of the Secretariat of the Government of India which have the force of law locally must be communicated to the Legislative Department which will compile them and issue a Second Supplement.

3. It is requested that any error or omission which may be noticed by any recipient of the Lists circulated with this Proceedings and with G.O. dated 18th May 1892, No. 30, Legislative, may be at once brought to the notice of Government.
