From the Under Secretary to the Government of India, Public Works Department (General), to the Joint Secretary to the Government of Madras, Public Works Department, General, Buildings and Roads Branch, dated Simla, the 20th July 1893, No. 1913 G.

In reply to your letter No. 1412 W., dated 29th May 1893, I am directed to inform you that the Government of India concur in the opinion of His Excellency the Governor of Madras that the periods, from 19th February to 27th March and 28th March to 7th April 1891, of the service of Mr. J. W. Martin, Superintending Engineer, 3rd class, and 1st class, temporary rank, cannot, for the reasons stated in paragraph 4 of that letter, be allowed to count for the special additional pension admissible under articles 714 (b) and 715 (a) of Civil Service Regulations.

2. I am, however, further to point out that the period, from 8th April to 7th July 1891, cannot, in any case, qualify under clause (b) of article 715, because it was a period of three months only.
