PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following papers—

From the Agt. Chief Presidency Magistrate, Madras, dt 19th June 1893, No 164, submitting for approval a proposal to shift the Presidency Magistrate's Court Black Town, into the old High Court Buildings.

Endorsement of the Public Works Department, dt 17th July 1893, No 574 D, on ~~the following~~ letter from the Consulting Architect, to the Government of Madras, dt 8th July 1893, No 1093, reporting that the rooms required by the Agt. Chief Presidency Magistrate at the old High Court buildings have been already allotted to the Stamp and Stationery office.

Order, 1st August 1893, No 1529.

The Consulting Architect's letter will be communicated to the Chief Presidency Magistrate for information with the remark that the proposal to transfer the Black Town Court seems unreasonable.

unreasonable seeing that the building in which it is located was constructed only a few years ago.
