To

THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO GOVERNMENT,

MARINE DEPARTMENT,

FORT ST. GEORGE.

SIR,

The Port Officer, Calicut, has recently brought to my notice the necessity of effecting certain alterations to the Port buildings at Bepore. He reports that a properly constructed store room is needed to take the place of the two cadjan sheds which are now used for the purpose - one of which has been blown down lately; and that the verandah on the south side should be tiled, and made uniform with the rest of the building. At present it is thatched with cadjans and leaks. As I concur in the views of the Port Officer, I have the

the honor to beg that the sanction of Government may be obtained to the preparation of plan and estimate by the Public Works Department, as the cost of the work is likely to exceed Rs 500/-

I have the honor to be,
sir,
your obedient servant,
