The Superintendent of Archaeological Survey

Sir,

Whereas I having been brought to my notice that damage is done to the monuments at the Seven Pagodas by the adjoining villagers, and that the services of a watchman are absolutely necessary to preserve the rocks from further damage, viz. I have the honour to forward for your sanction an estimate for Rs. 10, being the pay of watchman for January and February, 1893, at the rate of Rs 5/- per mensem, to be met from Provincial Funds, "Minor Depth, Antiquities"

2. The estimate for next year will be sent in in April 1893.

Memorandum.

Read the following paper from the Superintendent, Archaeological Survey, Madras, dy 28th December 1892, No 145.

No 1912, dy 20/23 Dec 1892.

I have the honour to submit copy of a letter from the Executive Engineer, Buckingham canal, in which sanction is asked for the employment of a watchman on Rs 5 to protect the monuments at the Seven Pagodas, during January and February 1893.

2. I think it desirable for the preservation of these works that such a man should be engaged. The amount if sanctioned, could be met from the present years conservation grant.

3. As to the estimate for next year, it should have been sent in, in time to be included in the conservation Budget estimate already passed.
