With reference to his remarks, it does not appear why he was discharged
June 26 March -

The order discharging this salable bond is dated 7th April, & the probability is that a receipt of this bond remaining clear was discharged on 9th May -

I think the C.O.
may issue, as it is not apparent that the Wm. requires any reconsideration

DOWLA SHEWERAM, 10th August 1893.

SIR,

I have the honor to bring to your notice that the Examiner of P. W. Accounts has objected to pass the Salaries of the following two temporary Estate Clerks from 1st March 1893 in the Panjam Division as their Continuance in the current official year has not been sanctioned by Government - vide G. O. No 913 W dated the 7th April 1893. Their services were not dispensed with from the 1st March 1893, as it was hoped that they would be sanctioned for the current year also. Their services were dispensed with, on the dates shown against their names, and I therefore request that you will be so good as to obtain the sanction of Government authorising the Examiner

5. Finally audit the salaries, as claimed in the Salary bills of the Executive Engineer.

6. Vankayya Service dispensed with on 26 March 1893.

7. Appalaswamy Naidu - do - on 9 May 1893.

8. of the 3 Clerks mentioned in Clause (a) of para 1 of the G.O. No 1344 dated the 7 April 1893, the En.
Engineer Ganjam Division reports that one was not entertained, either in the last, or in the current official year -

The Explanation given is hardly satisfactory
It does not at any rate account for one member being discharged on 26 March & the other kept on till 9 May.
