GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following paper :—

G.O., dated 8th July 1893, No. 1396, Judicial.

Paragraph 2. With regard to his letter of the 23rd ultimo, the Inspector-General will be informed that the practice hitherto followed is incorrect and that sanction should be sought for every block of huts of which the total cost exceeds Rs. 500. If, however, the Inspector-General desires, the Government will be prepared to extend the limit up to which works can be sanctioned for departmental construction by the Inspector-General to Rs. 1,000.

READ—also the following paper :—

From Colonel C. A. PORTEOUS, Inspector-General of Police, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 25th July 1893, No. 4169.

With reference to G.O., dated 8th July 1893, No. 1396, Judicial Department, I have the honour to request that Government may be pleased to extend the limit up to which works can be sanctioned by the Inspector-General of Police to Rs. 1,000, as otherwise Government will have to be troubled with a large number of estimates, including those for even two or three huts.

ORDER—dated 14th August 1893, No. 1639, Judicial.

The Inspector-General of Police will be authorized to sanction expenditure up to a limit of Rs. 1,000 in regard to works of petty construction and repair provided for in the Police budget. Order No. 434 of the Police Manual should be amended accordingly.
