Despatch from the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India, dated Calcutta, the 29th March 1893, No. 112.

With reference to paragraph 12 of your Lordship's Military Despatch No. 154, dated the 1st December 1892, we have the honour to state that we have no objection to the principle enunciated in our Proceedings in the Military Department for July 1882, No. 1770, being made applicable to the case of Sub-Conductor T. Golding, Military Works Department, who was superannuated before completing the necessary departmental service for the pension of his rank. We accordingly recommend that an invalid pension of £58 a year may be specially granted to him under article 1481, Army Regulations, India, Volume I, Part I, in lieu of the retiring pension of £54 a year, which he now receives under article 1480 of the same regulations.

Extract of a Military letter from the Right Honorable the Secretary of State for India; dated the 8th June 1893, No. 65.

Paragraph 3: I sanction the general application to honorary commissioned and warrant officers of the principle that compulsory retirement on superannuation shall confer a title to the pension that would be admissible on invaliding. Sub-Conductor T. Golding will, under this general decision, and not as a special case, be entitled to the invalid pension of £58 a year, and I have given instructions for the adjustment of his pension at this rate from 26th April 1892.
