OFFICE NOTE No. 1021-C

1

C. Samiah, a clerk in my office, who had for some time been in ill-health was granted one month's privilege leave with effect from 8th. August 1893, although his services could not be well spared. On the expiry of this leave, he returned to duty, although he was still in a weak state of health; and in doing this he was possibly actuated by zeal for Government as he knew the branch of the office to which he belonged, was short-handed.

2. After working for a few days however, (i.e. from 8th. to 13th. instant) the clerk's health grew worse and he was consequently unable to do his work

3. He now requests that the fact of his having attended office from 8th to 13th. instant may be ignored, & that one and a half months privilege leave be granted to him in extension of the one month originally granted to him.

4. I am satisfied that no evasion of rule was intended by the clerk, and I am therefore inclined to grant the extension applied for; but as there is no distinct rule in favour of it I would request the approval of Government to the same.
