In G.O. No. 1653 dated the 23 June 1893 Government sanctioned the sale of 3 laas of bricks collected at the site of the proposed new Women & Children Hospital.
 I have the honor to request permission to dispose of the remaining bricks about 580,000, without loss to Government and against the cost at once, as I find that in removing there will be a considerable loss from breakage and there is no room for stacking them near the site of the Law College. I can supply new bricks for the Law College as I require them from from the Government Brickfields.

I have the honor to be Sir
Your most Obedient Servant
