ENCLOSURE.

From the Accountant-General, Bengal, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Finance Department, dated 26th July 1893, No. 818-G.A.

With reference to the Secretary of State's despatch (Financial), No. 231, dated the 17th November 1892, and Financial Department Resolution, No. 2361-D., of the 10th June 1893, I have the honour to enquire what course should be adopted in the case of an officer on privilege leave, who proceeds out of India, and whose leave, while in Europe, is commuted to leave on medical certificate. In your letter, No. 2264, dated the 30th May 1893, to the Accountant-General, North-Western Provinces and Oudh, it has been ruled that an officer on furlough, who originally took leave from other causes than ill-health, is not entitled to the minimum rates of absentee allowances when his furlough is afterwards commuted to leave on medical certificate, but it is not clear that an officer on privilege leave, whose leave is afterwards commuted to leave on medical certificate, is not entitled to the minimum rates as he may have originally taken the privilege leave on account of ill-health. In such a case it would often be impracticable to obtain the required medical certificate referred to in your letter to the Accountant-General, North-Western Provinces and Oudh, unless it is provided that officers taking privilege leave in consequence of ill-health should, if they intend to proceed out of India, procure a medical certificate similar to those given in the case of officers proceeding on leave on medical certificate. A certificate, moreover, from the Medical Board at the India Office could, it is presumed, hardly cover a period prior to medical examination.

I have at present a case before me in which an officer on privilege leave in Europe has had his leave commuted to leave on medical certificate. I am unaware whether this officer was originally obliged to take privilege leave on account of ill-health, and I am doubtful what entry should be made in his last pay certificate regarding his absentee allowances, which will be affected should the minimum rates apply. I would, therefore, request the favour of definite orders to enable me to dispose of the present case and for guidance in the future.

ORDER—dated 11th September 1893, No. 885, Financial.
