Read—Proceedings of the Board of Revenue (Revenue Settlement, Land Records and Agriculture), dated 16th June 1893, Mis. No. 3537.

ABSTRACT.—Submitting for the orders of Government Mr. Moberly's letter regarding the advance of travelling allowance drawn by him.

Order—dated 20th July 1893, No. 681, Financial.

The Government of India will be addressed.

Letter—from the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, dated Ootacamund, 20th July 1893, No. 682, Financial.

I am directed to forward for the orders of the Government of India copy of the Proceedings of this Government of this date, No. 681, regarding the interpretation to be placed on Article 137 (d) of the Civil Account Code when read with Article 71.

2. Towards the end of March last Mr. Moberly, Special Settlement Officer, Malabar, drew an advance under the former article to enable him to go into camp. The Accountant-General objected to this on the ground that Article 71 forbids advances to meet personal travelling expenses and, in support of this contention, quoted the ruling in the Comptroller-General's letter, dated 10th February 1888, No. 2182, to the effect that that "Tour charges" as used in Article 137 (d) includes charges such as hire of draught animals and carts for conveyance of records, tents, &c., and that this article does not authorize the advance of travelling allowances to officers. Mr. Moberly contends that the Comptrollor-General's view is incorrect and that the tour charges referred to in Article 137 (d) are the tour charges of the officer and not those for the conveyance of his office. This view is also held by the Board of Revenue which considers, moreover, that it is desirable in the interests of the public service that travelling allowances should be drawn in advance to prevent officers whose duty calls them into camp towards the end of the month from being detained at head-quarters till the following pay day owing to their inability to meet the cost of travelling.

3. His Excellency the Governor in Council is, I am to say, of opinion that there is much force in the arguments of both Mr. Moberly and the Board and that the interpretation put by them on Article 137 (d), Civil Service Regulations, should be admitted.
