Letter from the Government of the Punjab, No. 139, dated the 12th April last.

Resolution.—In the letter from the Government of the Punjab cited in the preamble, His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor recommends that a general rule should be prescribed that all Superintendents and Deputy Superintendents of Central Jails should be entitled to free quarters or to house-rent when no Government buildings are available for their accommodation.

2. The question of rent-free quarters for Superintendents of Central Jails was dealt with in the orders of the Government of India noted above.

3. In the Resolution of 31st March 1871 it was determined that the question of free quarters for Superintendents who were not Medical officers should be decided according to the spirit of the rule laid down for Medical officers in the orders of the Government of India in the Financial Department, No. 3276, dated 24th December 1867 (republishing Home Department Resolution No. ⁸⁵₁₄₃₈₋₁₅₀₀, dated 18th December 1867), and that accordingly, whenever quarters at or near a jail were available and the Superintendent, who was not a Medical officer, was obliged to occupy them, he should be allowed to do so rent free; but that this ruling should not involve a right on the part of the Superintendent to compensation when free quarters were not available.

4. The orders of the 12th December 1872 decided a question raised by the Government of Bengal whether Superintendents of Central Jails who were not Medical officers were debarred from claiming house-rent when free quarters were not available. It was laid down by the Governor-General in Council that when house accommodation was not available for these officers, house-rent might be paid by Government, but that this allowance should not be given to a non-medical officer temporarily placed in charge of a jail for a few weeks who did not quit his own previous abode to reside nearer the jail.

5. As regards the question of the provision of rent-free quarters for Deputy Superintendents, the Jail Committee in paragraph 9 of chapter VI of their report recommended that for all Central Jails in which one special industry was carried on there should be a skilled manufacturer, to be styled the Deputy Superintendent, qualified to superintend the factory department in all its branches, and that besides being in charge of the manufactures and being responsible for the remunerative employment of the prisoners and the safe keeping of the stores, &c., he should make himself acquainted with the character and industry of every prisoner working under him and should assist the Superintendent in the allotting of marks and the granting of rewards for good work. For the proper performance of these duties it was considered essential that this officer should be provided with quarters near the jail.

6. On a full consideration of the matter, the Governor-General in Council has decided that all Superintendents and Deputy Superintendents who live in buildings attached to the jail or in quarters specially provided close to the jail should be exempted from the liability to pay rent, and that where quarters do not at present exist for these officers they should be constructed by Government gradually as funds are available. His Excellency in Council is, however, of opinion that the grant of house-rent, when quarters are not provided for these officers, stands on a somewhat different footing, and that it should in future be contingent on the Superintendent or Deputy Superintendent providing himself with a residence within a distance convenient for the purpose of his duties at the jail and approved by the Inspector-General of Jails of the Province. This condition will apply to the case of all Superintendents and Deputy Superintendents of existing Central Jails, but in any case in which this condition is not fulfilled and house-rent has actually been granted under the previous orders, it will be open to the Local Government or Administration to continue the allowance for a reasonable time sufficient to enable the Superintendent or Deputy Superintendent to move to a residence so approved.

Order.—Ordered that a copy of the Resolution be forwarded to the * for information and guidance, and that a copy, with copy of the letter from the Punjab Government, No. 139, dated the 12th April last, be forwarded to the Department of Finance and Commerce for information.
