4. The Superintending Engineer, IV Circle, has reported that estimates for items (b) and (c) have been submitted to Government through the Collector. This officer will be instructed in the Revenue Department to arrange for the early transmission of the estimates.

5. Of the budget grant of Rs. 5,000 for item (g), Rs. 2,000 have been resumed in G.O., No. 2414 W., dated 20th September 1893. The preparation of an estimate for the work has had to be deferred pending issue of a standard design for kitchens with circular cooking ranges in Central Jails. The design in question having lately been issued, the Superintending Engineer, I Circle, will lose no time in submitting the requisite plan and estimate.

6. The Superintending Engineer, V Circle, has already been directed to expedite the estimate for item (h)—vide G.O., No. 2288 W., dated 5th September 1893, paragraph 2. His attention will again be drawn to the matter.

7. The estimate for item (i) was forwarded to the Superintending Engineer, II Circle, for revision with memo. No. 5008 C., dated 4th September 1893. It should be resubmitted without delay.

8. Of the grant of Rs. 21,540 for item (j), Rs. 10,000 were withdrawn in G.O., No. 1996 W., dated 2nd August 1893. The estimate for this item, as also that for (k), are understood to be with the Inspector-General of Police, who will be called upon in the Judicial Department to expedite their transmission to Government.

9. By the reappropriation of funds sanctioned in G.O., No. 2212 W., dated 29th August 1893, the grant for item (m) has been reduced from Rs. 5,000 to 2,430. The existing provision has been allowed to stand pending information from the Judicial Department as to whether the shed in question is required. This information is awaited.

10. An estimate of Rs. 10,600 for item (o) has been submitted to the Government of India for sanction with letter No. 2195 W., dated 28th August 1893.

11. The Superintending Engineer, I Circle, will hasten the resubmission of the estimate for item (q) which was returned for revision with memo. No. 440 D., dated 21st June 1893.

12. Ordered that a copy of these Proceedings be forwarded to the Government of India, Public Works Department, for information.
