to the P.W. Department by the officer Commanding the 7th Regiment on its evacuating Mangalore in March last and which are stored in the Regimental store room attached to the guard room.

2. Orders have lately been received for sending up most of the articles to the Arsenal at Madras, and to sell a few unserviceable ones by auction here. This will be done shortly when weather permits as steamers have com-menced

Commenced plying.

3. The watchman's services are required until the stores are disposed of in the aforesaid manner.

4. The watchman was however not necessary for looking after any of the buildings, but as he was available he was made to take care of them and sweep them. Now most of these buildings have been handed over to the other Government Departments as per G.O. No 1679 W, dated 26 June 1893. They are fully described in the G.O.

5. I beg to request that under these circumstances the watchman's services be permitted to be retained until the stores are despatched to Madras, and his pay for August disallowed pending this explanation be passed for payment.
