READ—the following paper:—

Office-note from the Examiner of Public Works Accounts, dated Madras, 31st January 1893, No. 226 C.

With reference to this office circular No. 7 of 1892 and paras. 44 and 45 of my inspection report, dated 10th December 1892, on the accounts of the North Arcot division as to the necessity for careful forecasts of expenditure when submitting applications for letters of credit, I beg to report that the Accountant-General, Public Works Department, has again noticed that forecasts continue to be inaccurately prepared, and that he requires that in each case in future the particular entry or entries which have led to divergencies from estimates should be briefly stated, and the reasons for their inclusion or exclusion clearly explained.

2. To enable me to furnish this explanation, I would request that each Executive Engineer may be instructed to submit with his monthly accounts a memorandum in the accompanying form, giving the necessary particulars.

3. The point is one of much importance as explained in para. 2 of my circular above quoted, and it is imperative that executive officers should give their personal attention to it.

ORDER—dated 6th February 1893, No. 290 W., Public Works.
