and to a jodow for firewood etc.

Having thus explained the importance and the necessity for the additions suggested we only beg that we may not be deprived of the same.

We are occupying the building since March last and we are doomed to stay there with all the inconveniences and difficulties which are simply manifold.

As for the question of rent, the Office consists of one Head Clerk on Rs 20, one 2d Clerk on 15 Rs and a Shroff also on Rs 15 per mensem. We draw the same pay as the clerks in the plains without any bill allowance whatever, which we respectfully beg to submit we are fairly entitled to. The Officials of other departments, such as medical, Police, and the Postal Department, are all allowed free quarters. If the Board are pleased to deem and rent from us it means that our pay bill be, minus the rent we will have to pay. As our salaries are already low and to pay anything out of it will be a matter of extreme difficulty with us, considering the fact that we have to manage our living here, which which is already very costly when compared with that in the plains and warm clothings which is indispensable with our limited and poor salary. For all these reasons we humbly request that the additions to the buildings which are very essential may be sanctioned and that we may be allowed the use of the building rent free. For which act of kindness we and our successors would be ever grateful and thankful.

We beg to remain,
Respectfully,
Your most obedient servants,

2. The case of Mr. Chit Sarna Rao referred to in paragraph 2 of Public Works Department Endorsement No. 3377 C, dated 18th October 1893, does not come within the scope of G. O. dated 10th August 1893, No. 582, Educational. The arrangement, whereby the man was appointed though unpaired to a post carrying a salary of Rs 20-30 but was granted a salary of Rs 19 1/2 only was irregular as has been pointed out previously by Government in similar cases. The Government will however have no objection to Sarna Rao being graded as V Class 1 Grade and receiving the full pay of Rs 20 per month.
