The Director General of Stores,

Whitehall,
London. S.W.

Sir,

Re Contract 3/82 of 11th January 1892.

In reply to your letter 3.12770 of the 3rd instant, I beg to say the Closest Pipes supplied for the Contract are special articles, and such as are seldom asked for by my other Customers. The Lead pipes having been made special lengths are not only worth the price of old metal to me.

I would much prefer not having the goods back at all, but provided they are returned to me in the same good order as when despatched, free of all charges, I am to offer you £15 for the lot.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient Servant,

(Sd) Thomas W. Tryford.
