Jamine Tools.

A draft order on this subject is submitted for approval. If the proposals are accepted, it would be well, perhaps, to amplify Statement B. So as to show the present distribution of tools under F.W. Divisions.

The requisite information is not in the file, but it is probably in the office and is now being looked up. If this could be done, would show S. Co exactly where they could obtain tools from with the minimum of expense in case of necessity.
