Office order N^o 14 d/30th November 1891.

Hon^{ble} Member's remark on perusal order file of 26th November 1891:—

It does not appear necessary to print orders sanctioning Land Acquisition Notifications or to make any formal Communication of them to any body.

After the order has been passed it can be acted on by sending the Notification to the Gazette Press for publication.

This course will be adopted in future in all branches of the Department.

North West Collectors Office,

Ref. Govt. No 546/ of 1892 Chitkoot 16th December 1892 4/3

From H. Le Gane, Esquire, Collector of North West

To The Secretary to Government, Public Works Department

Sir,

When draft declarations for acquisition of lands are sent up to Government, in other Departments, to wit, the Local and Municipal Department, intimation is received in my office to the effect that the declarations have been ordered to be published in the Fort St George Gazette. The G.O. Communicating this information serves the double purpose of completing the file of Correspondence in this office, which has to be kept open till the declarations are published, and of enabling me to watch, if any delay is caused in the Government Press in publishing them. No such information is received in cases of declarations sent up to the P. W.

Department, and I am not in a position to see whether there is any unusual delay in the Government Press in publishing the declarations.

2. I have the honor, therefore, to request that you will be so good as to intimate to me the orders of Government on my references submitting draft declarations.

I have the honor to be Yours Most obedient Servant

FOR ORDERS.

I don't think I ever noted that orders were not to issue on the can? board. When I said was that they need not be printed or laid on the Eider table. This office order is I think wrong.
G.O.s can be issued on printed forms.
