Calcutta, the 20th December 1892.

SIR,

As the annual confidential reports on Royal Engineer Officers for the year ending 31st December 1891 were in many cases submitted either in an incomplete state or incorrectly prepared, and as this necessitated their return for completion or rectification, once or even oftener, thereby causing much trouble and correspondence to this Office, I am directed to invite special attention to Appendix U of Volume I of the Public Works Department Code, containing the rules for the preparation and submission of these confidential reports, and to request that, before submitting the confidential reports on the Royal Engineer Officers under ^{the control of the Government of} ~~your control~~ ^{Madras} ~~the control of the Agents to the Governor General for~~

for the year ending 31st December 1892, and subsequent years, to this Office, for transmission to the Adjutant General in India, the rules may be carefully read by the officers who make the entries in the forms of report, and that it may be ascertained before despatching the reports that the forms have been filled in in accordance with those rules.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

G. M. Walker

Under Secretary to the Govt. of India.
