GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

General.
Establishment.

Read—the following papers :—

From Lieut.-Colonel A. C. SMITH, R.E., Superintending Engineer, VI Circle, to the Chief Engineer, Public Works Department, dated Trichinopoly, 19th October 1892, No. 1103 T.C.

With reference to G.O., No. 1928 W., of the 14th July 1891, on G.O. in the Educational Department, No. 483, dated 25th June 1891, containing a schedule of the classes of appointments to which the Primary School examination rules are applicable, I have the honour to request instructions on the following points :—

(i) In each circle there are messengers classed under office establishment and lascars under petty establishment; the duties of these two classes of servants are more or less the same in practice; but in creating the former class in 1878 it was most probably intended to take the place of muchies and peons of the former District and Superintending Engineers' offices. In fact, messengers in the department have all along been treated as peons and distinguished by belts and badges allowed under the Government order noted in the margin. Their pay is also generally higher than that of lascars. Whereas in the schedule appended to the Government order under reference, the appointments of messengers are classed under menial, while those of lascars are considered to be similar to those of peons, and consequently the former are excluded from, while the latter are included in, the scope of the Primary School examination. The position of a messenger is generally considered to be higher than that of a lascar; the appointment should not therefore be classed under menial.

No. 880 W. of 24th March 1879.
Please see also G.O., No. 1822 W., of 4th July 1891.

(ii) In the Irrigation and Conservancy establishments there are lascars on pay of Rs. 3 to 8; if the term "all lascars" in column 1 of the schedule include these appointments, they should be filled up from January 1894 by candidates who passed the examination in question; but unpassed men may be appointed superintendents on pay less than Rs. 15 per mensem. This exemption does not appear necessary so far as this circle is concerned, as passed men are available even at this time for these posts. It appears necessary that lascars in the Irrigation and Conservancy establishments on pay of Rs. 5 and under should be exempted from the examination. In these cases, literary attainments are of little or no value, all that is required being physical fitness of the candidate inasmuch as the man must be sufficiently strong for manual work.

(iii) Chowkidars are classed in the schedule under menial servants and are excluded from the scope of the examination. It is not understood what are the duties of these servants and whether they differ from those of peons or lascars.

Memo. No. 5073 C.

In returning Educational Department endorsement No. 1852, dated 24th November 1892,* the undersigned has the honour to invite attention to this office memorandum, No. 469 D., dated 17th July 1890, in which it was recommended that messengers, peons and lascars in the Public Works Department should be excluded from the scope of the Primary School examination. In the schedule attached to G.O., dated 25th June 1891, No. 483, Educational, however, messengers are excluded while peons and lascars are included.

* Returning No. 602 D., dated 26th October 1892, for favour of remarks upon the proposals of the Superintending Engineer, VI Circle.

2. In this department the terms "messenger" and "peon" are synonymous, while the duties of lascars are generally very similar to those of messengers. If anything they are more menial in character, and it is considered that both peons and lascars of the Public Works Department should be excluded from the scope of the examination as originally recommended.

3. With reference to clause (ii) of the Superintending Engineer's letter, it is not considered desirable to make any change in the schedule as regards Superintendents of Irrigation and Conservancy establishments on pay less than Rs. 15 per mensem.

4. No orders appear necessary on clause (iii) of the Superintending Engineer's letter, as no men are employed in the Public Works Department bearing the designation of "chowkidar."
