7TH FEBRUARY 1893, No. 120, REVENUE.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

READ—again G.O., dated 14th January 1893, No. 90 Revenue.

ABSTRACT.—Requesting the Agent for Government Consignments to state if he cannot arrange to place packages of iron work under shelter as suggested by the Board.

READ—also the following letter from H. D. BADDELEY, Esq., Agent for Government Consignments, to the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department, dated Madras, 21st January 1893, No. 26:—

With reference to paragraph 1 of G.O., dated 14th January 1893, No. 90, I have the honour to state that arrangements will be made for placing in this office godowns, packages of iron work known to be liable to damage from exposure, provided they are of such a size as to admit of their being handled without the use of a crane.

2. To put all packages containing iron or metal, irrespective of the nature of their contents into the godowns, would involve higher contract rates and increased godown accommodation. In the case of very large packages requiring the use of a crane it would be impracticable. With the exception of the case under reference no necessity has arisen hitherto for placing such goods under shelter. Where cast-iron machinery has delicate fittings, a thick coating of white lead and tallow would generally protect such parts from rust.

3. I have issued orders that tarpaulins should be invariably placed over packages known to contain iron work which is likely to require protection from wet. It would facilitate matters, if departments importing iron work would inform this office when the packages require special care.

4. I would further suggest that an early examination of the contents should also be made, and any damage which may have occurred be brought to the notice of this office at once, as where a considerable period is allowed to elapse, as in the present instance, it is extremely difficult to afford a clear and satisfactory explanation.

ORDER—dated 7th February 1893, No. 120, Revenue.

Miscellaneous.

Communicated to all heads of departments under the Revenue Secretariat, whose attention will be drawn to paragraph 3 of the letter of the Agent for Government Consignments read above.
