To

The Secretary to the Government and Chief Engineer, Public Works Department,
Chesapeake, Madras.

Respected Sir,

With due deference I beg to submit that I am the wife of P. Theenathayala Chaidu, retired 11th class Clerk, of the Public Works Secretariat.
Pay at the rate of Rs 50 a month for three days (1st to 3rd January, 1892) and Gratuity Allowance at Rs 25 a month for a year (4th January 1892 to 3rd January 1893) are due to my husband. He is seriously unwell, in a bed-ridden condition, requiring constant care and continued treatment and nursing. For the last one year without any income whatever, I have been scraping together all available resources and have been obliged largely to borrow to meet the family demands. Now all available means are exhausted; and care-stricken, hard-worked and moneyless, I am obliged to throw myself upon the clemency of the Government and to pray that all the money above referred to, due to my husband

Solemnly
Declared this 12. day of February

No. 93.

Madras 20th February 1898.

From,

Ernest Barclay,

Government Solicitor

Madras.

To,

The Secretary to Government

Public Works Department

Madras.

Sir,

In reply to your endorsement dated 22nd instant No. 808 C, on Petition dated 11th idem from P. Palammal, wife of P. Theenath-ayalu Naidu, late clerk of the P. W. Secretariat, I beg to inform you that I see nothing in that petition to cause me to change the opinion expressed in my letter dated 13th April 1892 No. 140. I can only deal with matters of this kind from a legal point of view and the petition, rightly enough, merely asks for payment of the amount due to P. Theenathayalu Naidu as an act of clemency on the part of Government, which is a matter with which I am not competent to deal.

2. I return the petition and I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your Obedient Servant

Ernest Barclay

Government Solicitor
