READ—the following paper :—

Office-note from the Examiner, Public Works Accounts, dated Madras, 16th March 1893, No. 868 C.

[Your office-note No. 731 C. of 18th February 1893.]

With reference to your para. 2, I beg to state that the required information is not available from the records of my office. Please therefore ask Superintending Engineers and Collectors of those districts where famine prevailed during the past official year to furnish me with as little delay as possible (the information being urgently required by the Accountant-General, Public Works Department) with a list, in the accompanying form, of works undertaken for the employment of famine-stricken people, but which but for the occurrence of famine would not have been undertaken.

ENCLOSURE.

LAST of works undertaken for the employment of famine-stricken people during 1891-92, but which but for the occurrence of famine would not have been undertaken.

Superintending Engineer, Circle.
Collector.

ORDER—dated 24th March 1893, No. 817 W., Public Works.

Communicated to Superintending Engineers concerned, who will furnish the Examiner with the required particulars, obtaining from Collectors, so far as they are in a position to afford it, the information necessary for the completion of the statement.
