27TH MARCH 1893, No. 832 W., PUBLIC WORKS.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Buildings and Roads.
Civil Works.

READ—the following paper :—

From H. IRWIN, Esq., C.I.E., Consulting Architect to the Government of Madras, to the Secretary to Government, Public Works Department (through the Examiner, Public Works Accounts), dated Chépák, 16th March 1893, No. 3634.

The Commissioner of Police asks me to take immediate steps to repair the chicks in use at the Superintendent's quarters, Egmore, and to provide new rattan mats for the bed rooms of the same buildings.

2. From the Madras Public Works Code, para. 974, it would be observed that mats and chicks for buildings occupied as residences may be renewed and charged to annual repair estimates of the buildings. The Government of India Code now in force is silent on this point. I have therefore the honour to inquire whether I can supply them.

3. It is essential that mats and chicks should be supplied and renewed by Government in order to make the buildings habitable.

Endorsement by the Examiner, Public Works Accounts, dated Madras, 20th March 1893, No. 922 C.

Forwarded. There is no audit objection to the supply and repair by the Public Works Department of mats, chicks to buildings occupied as residences.

ORDER—dated 27th March 1893, No. 832 W., Public Works.

The rule in para. 974 of the Madras Code will be revived. Under this rule the repair or replacement of punkahs, mats and chicks supplied to buildings occupied as residences should be carried out only at the time of the annual repairs to the buildings.
