Chief Office of the Inspr General of Police Madras
15th July 1892

From Col. C. A. Porteous 992
Inspector General of Police

To

The Supdg. Engineer Public Madras

Sir

With reference to your letter No. 186 M of the 20th June 1892, I have the honor to state that as there are more important works which have to be pushed through viz construction of huts at Kumbaconam and Tanjore, I have ordered the construction of huts at Mannargudy to lie over for the present, and returned the plans and Estimates &c forwarded with your letter quoted above, to the Supdt. of Police Tanjore for file in his office.

The Estimate for Rs 1950 for huts at Tagatoor has been submitted to Government for sanction.

I have &c
